POSH PETS IN TOW BY KELLY CARTER

PUPTIAL EXCHANGE Members of the pet set are barking “I do” at Trump SoHo, which has turned into the place for canine weddings in New York. Pampered pooches and their dotting pet parents can choose from a woof wedding ceremony at SoHi, located on the 46th floor and featuring sweeping skyline views of the Hudson River, Statue of Liberty and Freedom Tower; the Manhattan event spaces on the third floor; or an al fresco affair on the covered Spring Terrace showcasing the landscaped Urban Plaza. In addition to spectacular catering and décor, the Trump SoHo events team assists with fun details like a dog-height treat table, securing an officiant for the bow vows and reception recommendations at local dog parks.

ULTIMUTT PERFECTION Petsetters staying at The Point aren't expected to dress in black tie for dinner like humans are on Wednesdays and Saturdays, but they can expect the same fancy treatment as their owners at the former home of William Avery Rockefeller. Whether it's with a bottle of Bowser Beer and freshly baked homemade cookies served in custom-made ceramic bowls upon arrival, chef-prepared salmon or chicken for dinner upon request, a bowl of refreshing Frosty Paws doggie ice cream at turndown or pet life jackets for boating excursions, The Point goes out of its way to please pampered pets staying at the Relais & Châteaux property that dates back to the Great Camp Era and sits on Upper Saranac Lake in the Adirondacks.

SOFIE'S CHOICE Petite pooches checking into L'Auberge Del Mar, a luxurious, 120-room retreat north of San Diego and overlooking the Pacific Ocean, receive a gift bag that reads “Sofie's personal guest” and contains goodies like Honest Kitchen gourmet treats, a water bowl that reads “champagne” and a feeding bowl that reads “caviar.” On certain days, Sofie, a four-year-old French poodle, is around to personally greet her four-legged guests, who can frolic freely at nearby Dog Beach. The concierge at L'Auberge Del Mar can arrange services such as dog walking, sitting, grooming, training, playtime, counseling and just about anything else your furry friend may need.

SPLENDID AT SEA

Extreme, iconic modern style, automotive and aircraft inspiration...not phrases you might normally associate with a top yacht maker, yes? But, to Italy's forward-thinking Admiral Tecnomar yacht firm, high style is job numero uno. Since 1966, the builder has launched 132 one-of-a-kind yachts that all share one important element: Incredible attention to detail. Take the Omphalos I 351-foot mega-yacht concept pictured here, for example. The proportions are more sports car (or spaceship) than nautical; long flowing hull lines provide an eye-catching profile, while also allowing for ample, integrated deck space to bring the outside in. Speaking of the interior, a sharp, aggressive prow gives way to a smooth, curvilinear aft and a unique ocular entry point into a series of four flowing, split-level decks. Public spaces like the lobby and main saloon traverse two or three decks each. Owner and VIP accommodations are reserved for the mid-decks. While no price or launch date has been specified by the builder, one look at this unique vessel gives you an exclusive view into what the future of high-style luxury yachting holds.

DESERT DETOX

Prepare for the royal treatment at Fairmont Scottsdale Princess's new Well & Being at Willow Stream Spa. The addition of the innovative and personalized wellness programs not only helps complete the final phase of the $60 million renovation at the AAA Five Diamond resort, but makes this oasis in the desert ideal for health-conscious vacationers. Customized experiences combine health, wellness, nutrition, integrative medicine, fitness and advanced, pampering skincare at the spa that has chief medical officer Dr. Tieraona Low Dog and integrative medicine expert Dr. Diane Downing on staff and offers diagnostic health tests and acupuncture. Fresh offerings include aerial yoga in the recently unveiled spa atrium, cooking classes at the exhibition kitchen and the HydraFacial ($149), a results-oriented treatment designed to improve skin texture, hydration and tone while providing the highest level of antioxidant protection. Also new is a calendar of “Intentional Living” retreats led by world-renowned wellness experts. The three- to four-day weekend getaways feature topics such as fearless living, healing sleep and women's wellness. Of course, spa-goers can still enjoy their favorite signature treatments and authentic, local therapies, like the two-hour Havasupai Falls Rejuvenation ($319), which includes a body exfoliation, massage and scalp massage, as well as the features the spa has come to be known for, such as the rooftop oasis pool, eucalyptus inhalation rooms and relaxation pools.
